GENERAL HEADQUARTERS. STATE OF CONNECTICUT.

ADJUTANT-GENERAL'S OFFICE,
NEW HAVEN, May 2d, 1870.

To His Excellency MARSHALL JEWELL,

Governor and Commander-in-Chief:

SIR:—I have the honor to transmit herewith the Annual Report of this Department for the year ending March 31st, 1870.

With the highest respect, I am
Your Excellency's most obedient servant,

S. E. MERWIN, JR.,
Adjutant-General.

REPORT.

General Headquarters, State of Connecticut,

Adjutant-General's Office,
New Haven, April 1st, 1870.

To His Excellency Marshall Jewell,

Governor and Commander-in-Chief:

Sir:—I have the honor to submit for your information and consideration, the condition of the Connecticut National Guard, and the operations of this office for the past year:

CONNECTICUT NATIONAL GUARD.

The present force of the National Guard consists of 39 Companies of Infantry, 2 Batteries of Artillery drilling as Infantry, one Battery and one Section of Battery drilling as Light Artillery. During the past year every Company has paraded eight days, as required by law; two days in the Spring and six days in the Fall for Regimental encampments, for which they have received compensation.

Many changes have taken place in the Guard, both among officers and privates, caused principally by expiration of term of service and removal from the State. The number of men discharged amounts to 642, but the number has been made good by new enlistments to the amount of 500.

It is with the utmost pride that I look upon some of our Militia organizations; they have shown themselves proficient in their drill, and in every respect are a credit to the State, and I regret that the character of our Militia, as a whole, should suffer by the incompetency of a few companies who have been unfortunate in the selection of officers, and I will suggest what seems to me a remedy for this in another portion of my report.

I have given much thought to military matters the past year, to know how the Guard could be benefited, how their burdens made lighter, and how the expense to the State might be made less. While this part of our Government is looked upon by some, rather disdainfully, and supported with much less zeal and willingness than the Executive, Judicial or Legislative portions; yet no honest citizen would for one moment entertain the thought that our State should be without a Militia organization. The time has been, and God only knows how soon it may come again, when this branch of our Government will be in the minds of the people paramount to all others. I am well aware that the State feels that the organization is a burden, but my experience is that not one-half of the burden is borne by the State—nearly every man doing duty in the National Guard paying out two dollars or more from his own pocket for every one he receives from the State, and a large proportion of our Guard are entitled to credit which they never receive. After thoroughly considering the subject, I recommend that the Guard be reduced to what might be termed a peace footing.

1st. To reduce and reorganize the Infantry Regiments to four in number, to be composed of eight companies each.

2d. To reduce the number of men in each company to the minimum number of the United States Army. By doing this, it would give to the State an ample force for its protection, and a better disciplined organization. The State could then well afford to be liberal with its Guard, and, at the same time, reduce the annual expenses.

In November last, the Quartermaster General called my attention to the condition of the State property in charge of Captain Hotchkiss, commanding Battery "B," of Bridgeport. After duly investigating the affairs of the Battery, it was deemed advisable to disband the organization, which was done December 1st, 1869, by Special Order No. 80, and the State property returned to the Arsenal.

The following Roster gives the name, rank and date of commission of every Commissioned Officer in the Guard, and immediately following is a statement showing the force of the Connecticut National Guard as per muster of March 1st, 1870.

ROCKVILLE, Conn., Jan. 1st, 1870.

BRIG. GENERAL S. E. MERWIN, JR.,
Adjutant General State of Connecticut.

GENERAL:

I have the honor herewith to submit my Report of the military condition of the First Brigade Conn. National Guard, commanded by Brig. General John N. Bunnell.

The First Regiment C. N. G., commanded by Col. Benjamin F. Prouty, and composed of ten companies of Infantry, and Battery "E" attached, encamped in a very pleasant location near the Conn. River at Wethersfield, Conn., on the 23d day of August, 1869, for six days duty, and was inspected on the 27th day of August, 1869.

The arms and equipments, with few exceptions, I found in fair condition.

The discipline and general appearance of the Regiment was good, and with the exception of some companies, (where disinterested members exist,) the battallion movements were well executed.

I take pleasure in making special mention of the excellent condition of the arms and equipments of Sergeant A. H. Stodard and Corporal J. B. Risley, Co. "A," Sergeant L. M. Moran and private L. Helm, Co. "B," Sergeant Stephen S. Naphy, Co. "D," Sergeants W. C. Lambert, G. J. Jillson, privates Wm. Gray, S. A. Gabriel, H. Dunbar, Co. "G," Sergeant C. H. Graham, Corporal T. C. Brooks, Co. "I," and Sergeant V. Hills, Co. "K."

The camp was well laid out; the company quarters, streets and parade were kept neat and in good order. While all the officers and most of the enlisted men are trying to bring the several companies of this Regiment up to the highest standard of military requirements, I regret that duty compels me to state that a few of the enlisted men do not seem to take that interest which is so essential to the proper execution of the several military evolutions. I would suggest that the company commanders at once cause all such inefficient men to be mustered out, and fill their places with men who will take pride in serving their State in a soldierly manner.

The Third Regiment C. N. G., commanded by Col. J. J. McCord, and composed of eight companies, including Battery "D," of Hartford, and Artillery Co. "G," of Rockville, encamped at Norwich, Sept. 13th, 1869, for six days duty, and was inspected Sept. 17th, 1869.

The arms and equipments of this Regiment, with few exceptions, were in excellent order.

The company drill, guard mounting, and battallion movements, were executed in a highly creditable manner, and the officers and enlisted men deserve special commendation for their efforts in bringing this Regiment to its present high standing.

I take pleasure in referring to the fine condition of the arms, equipments, and soldierly appearance of H. E. Lindsley, Battery "D," Corporal James Morrison, and private W. A. Bushnell, Co. "G," and Sergeant Nelson Niles, Co. "F."

The camp was well policed, streets and company quarters neat and tidy.

The clothing of the command was in as good state of preservation as could be expected, considering the time worn. The caps are totally unfit for service, and I would recommend that as soon as practicable a new issue of uniforms, differing in style and quality from those now worn, be issued to the entire militia of the State.

The command is in a prosperous condition, and is a credit to the State.

Very respectfully,

Your obedient servant,

SAMUEL J. COREY,

Major and Inspector 1st Brigade C. N. G.

DERBY, Conn., Feb., 1870.

BRIG. GEN S. E. MERWIN, JR.,
Adjutant General State of Connecticut.

GENERAL:

I have the honor to herewith submit my annual report of the military condition of the Second Brigade, Connecticut National Guard, commanded by Brig. General S. W. Kellogg. This command is comprised of one full Regiment (the second), ten companies, one of eight companies (the Eighth), and four (4), companies of the Sixth attached to the Second, one section Battery "C," and Battery "F," (serving as Infantry) Light Artillery.

The Eighth Regiment, under Col. Crawford, encamped near Danbury, August 30th, 1869. The camp was on grounds peculiarly adapted to the purpose, and I can only say of this command that it was never in better condition; a few of the old faults "cling round it still;" but they are in process of extinction, and it may be hoped they will soon be reformed altogether. The officers and men of this command are striving for a high standard of military excellence.

The Second Regiment, Col. E. E. Bradley, encamped at New Haven, Sept. 6th, 1869.

This command has again changed hands, and there is a newness which only familiarity can blend into a harmonious whole. One tour of duty is not sufficient to permit the commanding officer to impress himself upon his command, and develop his ideal of military excellence. It must be confessed, in this connection, that there exists a want of that "esprit du corps" which would materially assist in producing desirable results. The few field days permitted to our militia should be vigorously devoted to the work in hand; then a few tours of duty would serve to reflect the express image of him who had them in charge.

The drill of the Eighth Regiment was more uniformly good than that of the Second. There are a few companies in each which are proficient. The Second Regiment is too bulky to be easily handled, and then if we add that there is not manifested the same desire for excellence as in the Eighth, the difference will be readily understood. I think the Brigade, as a whole, would exhibit considerable expertness and skill in military maneuvers.

Battery "C," Lieut. Griswold, maintains its old and excellent reputation in all soldierly qualities. Battery "F," Capt. Cook, is serving as Infantry, and deserves honorable mention.

Discipline.—There is a decided want of discipline in Col. Bradley's command. Some of the officers and men do not do as well as they know how to do, and are therefore deserving of censure. It is to be hoped they will hereafter aid the Colonel in his efforts to attain a better condition of things.

In the Eighth Regiment there is complete discipline, and consequent excellence in other matters.

Arms.—These are generally in good serviceable condition.

Equipments.—Some companies have kept them in good shape. They are generally in fair condition.

Clothing.—The clothing is now somewhat worn; some companies should have a new issue immediately.

The Caps are an abiding nuisance.

Guard duty.—This important duty continues to be poorly executed. I would respectfully suggest that (unless there is to be an improvement) a less number of sentinels would expose less the ignorance, or carelessness, which characterizes this branch of the service.

Police duty.—This duty was well and carefully executed. The camps were neatly kept. Company quarters, streets, parades, &c., were in fine condition. Finally, I can only repeat what has always been said, that we blend many faults and excellences. The faults can be overcome, the excellences increased, until a complete whole be evolved, which cannot fail to honor alike those who have the control of the forces and our noble State.

I have the honor to be,

Very respectfully,

Your obedient servant,

THOMAS S. GILBERT,

Major General and Inspector 2d Brigade C. N. G.

BOARD OF EXAMINERS.

SECOND SESSION OF EXAMINING BOARD.

General Head Quarters State of Connecticut,
ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
NEW HAVEN, JAN. 6, 1870.

SPECIAL ORDERS,
No.

The Examining Board, appointed in special orders Nos. 48 and 64, series of 1869, will convene at this Office, in the State House, New Haven, on Thursday, the 24th day of February, at 9 A. M., for the examination of such officers as may be ordered to appear before it.

By order of the Commander-in-Chief,
S. E. MERWIN, JR.,
Adjutant General.

In pursuance of the above order, the Board convened at this office February 24th, 1870, for the examination of all Officers who failed to pass, or did not appear for examination at the Regimental encampments. Of the 40 ordered to report for examination, but 9 appeared, and of this number only 5 passed examination.

In connection with the foregoing report, allow me to suggest that, to my mind, it would be a decided improvement if all

Officers were examined before receiving their commissions. An amendment to our present law to this effect would give to our National Guard competent officers, without which it is utterly impossible to make good companies or regiments. As the law now stands, officers sometimes hold their commissions a year before examination, and then when found incompetent, it becomes the duty of the Commander-in-Chief to revoke the commission, which were better never issued.

Since writing the above, the following letter has been received from General Harland, President of Examining Board. Coming as it does, from one so thoroughly versed in military, I take great pleasure in submitting the same.

NORWICH, Conn., March 31st, 1870.

BRIG. GEN. S. E. MERWIN,
Adjutant General of Connecticut.

GENERAL:

* * * * * * * * * * *

The "examining Board is appointed by the Commander-in-Chief under the provision of Sec. 31 of the Act for forming and conducting the Military force." By reference to said section, it will be seen that an officer is not required to appear before the Board until the next annual encampment after his commission is issued, and, that if he fail to pass then, he is entitled to another examination within six months. In consequence of the provision of the Statute, an officer who is totally unqualified may hold his position for nearly eighteen months. A change in the Statute would therefore seem to be necessary, which would require officers to be examined before they receive their commissions.

This would do much to keep inefficient men out of the militia, and the Board hereby recommend that such change in the law be made.

I have the honor to be, General,
Very respectfully,
Your obedient Servant,
EDWARD HARLAND,
President of the Board of Examination.

COMMISSION TO EXAMINE PROPERTY IN STATE ARSENAL.

In accordance with an Act of the Legislature of last year, authorizing the appointment of a commission to examine the property in the State Arsenal, and condemn for sale such property as in their judgment was useless for the State, the following order was issued from this office:

General Headquarters, State of Connecticut,

ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
NEW HAVEN, July 14, 1869.

SPECIAL ORDERS,
No. 15.

(I.) Col. J. J. McCord of Norwich, Lieut. Col. E. E. Bradley of New Haven, and Charles T. Martin of Hartford, are hereby appointed a Commission to examine the property in the State Arsenal, and report to this office such portion as they deem unfit for service.

(II.) Col. McCord will assemble the Commission at as early a day as possible.

By order of the Commander-in-Chief,
S. E. MERWIN, JR.,
Adjutant-General.

In compliance with the above, the Commission met at the State Arsenal in Hartford and submitted their report. Upon receipt of same, the following order was issued:

General Headquarters, State of Connecticut.

ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
NEW HAVEN, Sept. 21, 1869.

SPECIAL ORDERS,
No. 71.

The Commission appointed by the Commander-in-Chief to examine the property in the State Arsenal having recommended that certain articles therein be disposed of, Quarter- master General L. A. Dickinson is hereby ordered to dispose of such property, either at private or public sale, or both, as in his judgment will serve the best interest of the State, and make return to this office of the amount received therefrom.

By order of the Commander-in-Chief,

S. E. MERWIN, Jr.,

Adjutant-General.

State of Connecticut.

Quartermaster-General's Department.
Hartford, March 16, 1870.

Brig. Gen. S. E. Merwin, Jr.,
Adjutant-General, New Haven, Conn.

General:

I have the honor to report that Five Thousand Two Hundred Twenty-nine and $\frac{52}{100}$ Dollars ($5,229.52) is the net receipts realized from sale of property in accordance with Special Order No. 71, Adjutant-General's Office, dated New Haven, Sept. 21, 1869.

I have the honor to be, General,
Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,

L. A. DICKINSON,
Quartermaster-General.

ENROLLMENT.

Blank forms were sent to the Selectmen of the various towns, in October last, for the preparation of the annual returns to this Office, of the number of persons subject to "Commutation Tax" and to enrollment as "Inactive Militia."

The returns of many of the towns were manifestly wrong, and many corrections were made, which added over Four Hundred to the number subject to "Commutation Tax" above the first returns. It seems very evident that some of the Selectmen do not thoroughly understand the law in regard to the enrollment.

The number returned as liable to commutation tax is One Thousand Six Hundred and Twenty-four less than last year. This is accounted for in part, if not entirely, by the following act passed by the last Legislature:

[CHAPTER VI, MAY SESSION, 1869.]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives, in General Assembly convened:

All persons who have served in the army or navy of the United States in the late rebellion, not less than one year, and have been honorably discharged therefrom; and all who have been discharged on account of wounds or sickness incurred in service and in the line of duty; and all who have been discharged on account of expiration of term of service, shall be exempt from poll and military commutation tax.

Approved June 9, 1869.

The Act of July 6, 1865, exempted only those who had honorably served at least two years in the army or navy during the late war. The question having arisen, whether Nine Months men were exempt under the Act of June 9, 1869, it was referred to legal authority, and it was decided that all men who had been honorably discharged were exempt, however short the term of service.

The returns of the Towns are given herewith:

CATALOGUES.

The General Assembly of 1868 directed the Adjutant General to publish a catalogue of the regiments and batteries in the service of the United States from this State during the late rebellion. In compliance with that resolution, my predecessor contracted with Messrs. Brown and Gross, of Hartford, for the number of copies authorized, (1000) and the same were delivered to the Adjutant General in June last. The resolution also instructed what disposition should be made with said catalogue, which was complied with. There remaining a few copies on hand, the last Legislature passed a vote giving a copy to each member, leaving now but seventeen copies in the office.

SOLDIER TESTIMONIALS.

The application for these records of honorable service during the war still continue, several hundred having been issued during the past year, and they can be found in the hands of Connecticut soldiers in nearly every State in the Union.

HISTORIES.

We have distributed during the past year, about one hundred and fifty of "Crofut & Morris' History of Connecticut during the War," to the widows of Connecticut soldiers, and have 190 copies remaining on hand, which we think will supply all demands that will be made for the next two years, the call for them having nearly ceased.

CERTIFICATE OF RECORD.

These are still being largely called for by our Connecticut soldiers who have lost their discharges, and they find them valuable aids in establishing claims against the Government, or the towns from which they enlisted.

ANNUAL RETURN.

The annual return of the militia force of Connecticut has been prepared and furnished the Adjutant General of the United States Army, under date of January 1st, 1870. There was also forwarded a statement of Ordnance and Ordnance Stores, received, issued and remaining on hand in the State Arsenal during the past year.

RECORDS.

The records of our Volunteers being in such constant use for reference, and they having been much worn, it was deemed advisable by Adjutant General Ingersoll to make new ones for this Office, and the work had already been commenced when I assumed charge. Fully realizing the importance of this, it has been continued, and when completed will be the most correct record ever made of the Connecticut Soldiers. These books are not designed for immediate use, but more for the purpose of handing down to posterity a correct list and record of the brave defenders of our Republic.

BUREAU OF CLAIMS.

In this department it is gratifying to report that several old claims have been paid the past year; also, some new ones, making a total of $20,000, which has gladdened the hearts of many. Claimants still continue to make their applications through this office for their bounties, pensions, arrears of pay, and commutations of rations. None but those interested will ever appreciate what the State has done for the widows, the orphans and brave soldiers in establishing this bureau. Much apprehension seems to exist in relation to claims for bounty in consequence of a recent case which occurred before the United States Supreme Court. The ruling of the pay department, at Washington, is, that "Soldiers who enlisted for three (3) years, between May 4, 1861, and July 22d, 1861, and were honorably discharged," are entitled, under this decision, to $100 bounty.

The claims for Commutation for Rations for prisoners of War are being numerously made, and are promptly settled by the department at Washington. Where both parents of deceased soldier, who has left neither widow or children, are living, a joint application for pay is necessary for this claim. The allowance is twenty-five cents per day.

Owen O'Brien, Esq., is still in charge of this department—a position he has filled faithfully from the establishment of the bureau.

STATE BOUNTIES.

The claim for State Bounties that have been made the past year, are few in number. The majority of applications have been bogus, and I would most respectfully suggest to you and to the Legislature the propriety of limiting the time when payment of Bounties shall cease.

CONCLUSION.

There have been issued from the office during the past year 80 official Orders relating to the National Guard, with an average of eight copies each, making a total of six hundred and forty (640). We give a synopsis of a few of the more important ones.

General Order.—July 31, 1869, referring to the death of Hon. Isaac Toucey, of Hartford, formerly Governor of the State.—S. O. No. 51.—Aug. 4, 1869—accepting resignation of Col. George A. Basserman, of the 2d Regt. C. N. G.—S. O., No. 55.—Aug. 19, 1869—promoting Lieut. Col. E. E. Bradley to be Colonel of the 2d Regt., vice Basserman, resigned. General Order, Sept. 1, 1869—referring to the death of Thomas W. Cahill, late Col. of 9th Regt. C. V., and Bre. Brig. General of Volunteers.—General Order, Nov. 16, 1869—adopting, for the instruction and observance of the Connecticut National Guard, the system of instruction of the Drum and Fife, as prepared by Gardiner A. Strube and adopted by the Secretary of War, for use in the U. S. Army.—General Order,

Jan. 27, 1870—announcing the death of Brevet Major General Joseph A. Mower, of the U. S. Army, and a citizen of Connecticut.—General Order, Feb. 10, 1870—calling for a correct muster-roll from every Company and Battery of the C. N. G.

The correspondence of the office, although not as numerous as during and immediately after the War, is still quite large, and the letters received and answered every year are numbered by thousands.

The expenses of the office during the past year have been rigidly economized, and are one thousand eight hundred dollars ($1,800) less than last year.

I cannot close this Report without making acknowledgment to Capt. Simeon J. Fox, Asst. Adjutant General, and Messrs. Frederick Whittelsey and Edward J. Fox, clerks of the office, for their valuable assistance during the past year.

Duly appreciating the compliment you have paid me, in calling me to occupy so honorable a position, I remain,

Very respectfully,

Your Excellency's,

Most obedient servant

S. E. MERWIN, Jr.,

Adjutant-General.

ROLL OF HONOR.

Believing it would be of interest to many, I have thought best to publish the names and place of burial of those brave sons of our State who died for their country during the late rebellion. The list comprises those who were buried in National Cemeteries, Battle-fields, &c. The total number is 2,480.

"Such Graves as these are hallowed shrines,
Shrines to no code or creed confined,
The Delphian Vales, the Palestines,
The Meccas of the mind."

Those marked with a * have been disinterred and the remains removed by friends.
